Eclipse Watch on the Labyrinth

The three labyrinth area benches are available, but if you would like a clear view on the lawn, bring lawn chairs or a blanket. And of course, you may walk the labyrinth if you wish. The total eclipse for the Cape area will be at 1:21pm. This is a casual gathering with no set schedule; come and go as you please!

Just a reminder that we will have a viewing of the solar eclipse next Monday, August 21, beginning at 12:30pm in the labyrinth area. If you do not already have them, there will be a few proper solar eclipse glasses available since friends have shared their extras.
