

ARCC NOTES

NOTES FROM THE ROAD

"God is still speaking!" One of those ways, DNA-deep in our ancestral sources, is through dreams and visions. From Joseph Jacobson to John of Patmos, dreams help tell and direct the story. In the fire and baptismal flood of Pentecost they are prophetically promised to us: "your young shall see visions, and your old dream dreams."

So I want to know: as people promised and steeped in dreams, what are you dreaming for Abbey Road?

Dreams can be hard to hang onto, fading as they do in the rational day. Maybe we should have a big church slumber party. "Now we lay us down to sleep, beside dream journals, our dreams to keep." Well, best you can, please glean what you can. We'll gather the tatters. Woven together, they might form the fabric of a future.

What I'm listening to: David Rawling's insanely evocative "Cumberland Gap" (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fjnTSBhUSlw>). One way I hear it is as a parable of the spiritual/creative life: sometimes you know exactly what you need and where to go ... the only problem is, getting there will kill you.

On Sunday, January 21, the Fast Track New Testament class will hope for better weather and a chance to talk about Paul's letter to the Corinthians (1-15) and Timothy (1-6). Interesting stuff in there; particularly about strife in congregations and Paul's remedy. Be there for a fascinating discussion about how Paul is still relevant today. We meet in the "Green" room just across from the kitchen. Maps available on request or check Google Maps.

- ❖ Golden Boys will meet on Tuesday at 8:00 at My Daddy's Cheesecake. Please join us for breakfast and conversation.
- ❖ If you loaned a Christmas ornament to Doug, you may pick it up in the office.
- ❖ Remember to start saving stuff for the upcoming Garage Sale!
- ❖ Please sign up to serve in February.
